Stylish Classy venue on Potsdamer Platz

The venue lies in the centre of Berlin. The combination of historic stucco fragments and a highly modern light-flooded glass and steel façade makes this venue suitable for the most varied of events. A fully equipped 10m long bar, its glass front (which can be blacked out) and the technical details make it the right setting for business events like conferences, meetings, presentations, gala dinners, receptions, after-show parties, exhibitions and press conferences, and also for private events like anniversaries and weddings. A large terrace can also be used for events.
